Part Time Course Details

All part time courses are self-study theory and on-site practical training:

THEORY

- theory will be self-study for this year 2020
- online pre-recorded lectures and assignments will become available from 2021
- study at your own pace and in your own time
- you will need internet access to watch lectures and submit assignments
- lecturers assist with theory during practical class hours
- assessments are taken when you are ready within one year of commencement

PRACTICAL OPTION 1: night class

- practical will take place on-campus Thursdays from 4pm - 8pm
- study in your own time, at your own pace and start your course anytime of the year!
- you should 'book a bed' and bring your client to practise on for the Thursdays you wish to attend
- a highly skilled lecturer will be instructing, supervising, assisting, and teaching you in your practical skills
- assessments are taken when you are ready within one year of commencement

PRACTICAL OPTION 2: day class

- practical will take place on-campus 2-3 days per week 9am-4pm
- we work according to a schedule for each subject
- tests and assessments are done throughout your studies
